

In churches and homes everywhere, on November twenty-second, let us rededicate ourselves to the pursuit of those ideals of human dignity in which he believed and whose course he so brilliantly illuminated.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this nineteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-four, [SEAL] and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-ninth.

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

By the President:

DEAN RUSK,
Secretary of State.

Proclamation 3630

SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL DAY

By the President of the United States

A Proclamation

WHEREAS Sir Winston Churchill will celebrate on November 30, 1964 his 90th birthday; and

WHEREAS, in testimony of the American people's deep respect and affection for him, this great national leader and world statesman was, on April 9, 1963, proclaimed an honorary citizen of the United States; and

WHEREAS, by his courage, vision and leadership, his place in the history of freedom is permanently enshrined; and

WHEREAS, in his own lifetime he has come to embody a statesmanship that serves all men's desires for liberty and human dignity; and

WHEREAS, this significant milestone—in the life of this great man—is deserving of special recognition:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lyndon B. Johnson, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim Monday, November 30, 1964 Sir Winston Churchill Day.

I invite the people of the United States to mark this event and celebrate the occasion by arranging and participating in appropriate ceremonies worthy of this day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have herewith set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-four, [SEAL] and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-ninth.

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

By the President:

W. AVERELL HARRIMAN,
Acting Secretary of State.
